Practice Air Raid Warning

Held This Morning
In Washington;
Business Suspended
For 15 Minutes

By The Associated Press
As sirens blasted a practice air raid warning today, an ambulance and two fire trucks rushed to the White House, where gates were baricaded, and troops were rushed to stations to give a realistic demonstration of what would happen should Washington have an actual bombing.

The first day-light raid practice brought business in metropolitan Washington to a virtual standstill for some 15 minutes.

Signing Agreement Today

The White House announced that a lend-lease agreement with China would be signed today at the State Department.

It is patterned after an agreement with great Britain which provides that major adjustments of the lend-lease ledgers will be delayed, probably until a postwar accounting, and that the nations shall collaborate after the war in the field of economic rehabilitation.

Reject Pipeline Bill

In the face of unexpected opposition, the House leadership today had virtually abandoned legislation for construction of an oil pipeline and a barge canal across Florida as a means of transporting oil and gasoline to the eastern seaboard. The House rejected the bill yesterday, 121
to 85.

Removed Restrictions

The War Production Board today removed its prohibition against the use of wool in carpets, draperies and upholstery for non-military use, permitting manufacturers use up to 25 percent of the amount of coarse wool they used

Meet To Discuss Air Raid Warnings

Edward Warren, Webster Groves, assistant state adjutant for the American Legion, met at the Chamber of Commerce offices today, with J. H. Bagby, chairman of the Pettis County Council of Defense, and several members, interested particularly in air raid warning service, and affiliated activities.

Mr. Warren explained that Missouri is a state that must be well organized, because its many defense plants might be sought out as targets. He mentioned organizations throughout the state, and complimented Pettis county on the thoroughness of its organization. He plans to return here the latter part of the month to remain several days.

Attending the meeting were Mr.
Bagby, Ralph Baker, Commander of the American Legion, Dr.
Hardin Gouge, Loan Richardson, Defense Council members and Harvey D. Dow.

W. W. Bolton Injured By Horse

W. W. Bolton, of route 3, suffered severe facial injuries at his farm this afternoon, when riding a horse owned by him. Bolton's condition was described as serious, but not critical, by attendants at the Bothwell hospital, where he was taken immediately.

X-ray photographs were taken this afternoon to determine whether the victim had suffered a fractured nose. The 73-year-old Pettis countian served as sheriff
here several years ago.

Transportation Meeting

All superintendents of schools in the county and all drivers of school busses are invited to attend the annual transportation approval meeting to be held in the office of C. F. Scotten, county superintendent of schools, at 10
a. m., Thursday, June 4.

Paul J. Keith, state high school supervisor for the central Missouri district, will be present at the above meeting to approve high school bus routes for the ensuing school year.

Helps In Painting Shortage

Mrs. Willard Phillips, who resides two miles south of Smith-ton came to town to give her uncle, W. H. Neely, help in spring painting around his residence, 400 West Fourth street. From the top of a ladder as she painted around a second story window, Mrs. Phillips carried on a conversation about her "apprenticeship," saying she enjoyed doing a little painting now and then.
"I first painted our house out on the farm, and because there seems to be a shortage in house painters I offered to help my uncle. I suppose we will be through in about six days. I use a wire brush and brush down the boards as I go along, and it's going to take a little longer for the first coat than I first expected," she said.

When asked if it was a good "reducing job," Mrs. Phillips replied "I haven't noticed it, they feed me well here," as she kept on painting not missing a stroke.

Mrs. Phillips is shown in the picture dressed in regular white painter's overalls, wearing a big straw hat, and semi-high heel shoes.

Mexico's Reply To Axis Attack

Roosevelt Sends
Appreciative Note
To Mexico's Leader

WASHINGTON, June 2—(AP)—
President Roosevelt described the Mexican declaration of war against the axis today as a "characteristically resolute and virile"
response to unprovoked attack.

He sent this message to President Avila Camacho of Mexico:
"I have been informed that the United Mexican states has made a formal declaration of war on Germany, Italy and Japan, thereby taking up a battle position alongside other freedom loving nations which have been the subject of criminal aggression by these enemies of human liberties.
Mexico, too, became the victim of unprovoked attack and Mexico has in characteristically resolute and virile fashion, answered this challenge to its dignity and liberty. Once again the axis tyrants have woefully erred in their appraisal of the temper of a free nation.

U. S. Welcomes Mexico

"The people of the United States are with me honor of welcoming Mexico to that community of nations united in fighting for the preservation of freedom and democracy. At the same time, I extend to you on their behalf their deepest sympathy to the families of your countrymen who have already given their lives for our common cause. By our victory and the use we make of it we shall consecrate the memory of their supreme sacrifice.

"I take this opportunity to send you my warm personal regards and my appreciation of your many and valuable contributions to our common cause.

"Franklin D. Roosevelt."

Class For Red Cross Instructors

Monday night, at Fire Station
No. 2, a class for First Aid instruction was organized and plans made and put into effect for continuation of American Red Cross First Aid classes. Dr. C. D.
Osborne presented LeRoy Snyder, who will serve as instructor of instructors. A splendid attendance gave evidence of interest that is being directed towards this vital part of the war effort, making it clear that in Sedalia and the rest of Pettis county interest in being prepared for any possibility is not lacking.

The group will meet every night
this week at Fire Station No. 2
and a movie illustrating the training and technique will be shown.

No Agreement On Bill For Military Pay

War Department
Opposes Increase
To $50 Monthly

WASHINGTON, June 2—(AP)—
The war department, seeking to break a congressional deadlock
over the military pay adjustment bill, today was reported to be urging a compromise under which lowest ranking personnel in the army, navy and marine corps would receive $40 cash monthly and $10 in non-negotiable government bonds.

Authoritative sources said this proposal was advanced as an alternative to the $50 a month pay scale demanded by the house and the $32 voted by the senate. A joint conference committee has been unable to reconcile the two figures.

Opposes Fifty Dollars

The war department was reported strenuously opposed to $50 on the ground that it not only would boost army maintenance costs substantially but would give soldiers and sailors too much spending money.

The pending bill provides for a 20 per cent pay increase for duty outside the continental United States. Thus, if the $50 scale were adopted, army privates serving overseas would receive $60 monthly.

Part Payment In Bonds

Part payment in government
bonds, redeemable after the war,
was advocated by Senator Taft (R-Ohio), who said he felt most soldiers would be glad to have $10 a month saved for them.

However, Senator Georges (D-Ga) said he would prefer an arrangement whereby soldiers either could put the money in bonds or designate some dependent to receive it.

Meanwhile, administration leaders were reported urging Senator LaFollette (Prog-Wis) not to press for action immediately on a motion to discharge the conference committee and bring the $42-$50 question before the senate for a direct vote.

His Conscience Bothered Him

JEFFERSON CITY, June 2—
(AP)—Mack Nave was back in prison routine voluntarily today — after 16 years of fugitive freedom—because "my wife and I agreed it was the thing to do."

He escaped from prison in 1926 after serving three months of a liquor sentence.
He showed up at the prison
gates last week end and told surprised officers he "figured eventually they'd finger print me for the draft or something and find out."

Nave, now 42, has been living with his wife and four children
on a farm near Metamora, Mich.
His official prison sentence was for two years.

Jack McAnerney 'Missing In Action'

Jack M. McAnerney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. McAnerney of St. Joseph, formerly of Sedalia, is reported among the United States soldiers "missing in action" Sedalia friends learned today.

Jack was a civil engineer, and had been engaged in work that dealt with his profession. Sedalia friends received cards from him about Christmas time and his parents have heard from him
once since that time.

Preparing For Fifth Registration

The fifth Selective Service registration will be held in Sedalia on June 29 and 30 in the second floor lobby of the court house.
The registration on June 29 will be from 8:30 in the morning until 5 o'clock in the afternoon and on June 30 from 7 o'clock in the morning until 9 o'clock that night.
The registration is for men born on or before January 1, 1922 and for men born on or before June 30, 1924.

Women of the American Legion Auxiliary Post No. 16 and other volunteer workers will handle the registration without pay. Members of the Legion Police force will assist in handling the crowd.

Hitler Fails To Sense Public Pulse

Writer States
His Hold Is Slowly Slipping

(Editor's Note: Just returned to this country after five months interment by the Germans at Bad Nauheim, Louis P. Lochner, former chief of the Berlin Bureau of Wide World and a Pulitzer prize winner for excellence in foreign correspondence, tells in this article how Hitler's hold on the masses is slipping.

BY LOUIS P. LOCHNER

NEW YORK, June 2—(Wide World)—Adolf Hitler, for almost 20 years a master psychologist at sensing what the masses want to hear and what they are prepared to accept in the way of burdens and deprivations, has shown definite signs of late failing to fathom public sentiment correctly.

In consequence, his unexamined hold upon the masses is gradually slipping.

The most recent case in point is his Reichstag speech of April 26.

Thoughtful Germans still are asking themselves: How could Hitler at the end of a terrible winter, which took a severe toll of German life at the Russian front, inaugurate spring by telling the nation that next winter better transportation would be provided in the east? Why not see first how the summer offensive turns out and reserve talk about the next winter until then?

Germans Depressed

We who heard the speech on our secret radio during the final days of our internment at Bad Nauheim noted the depressing effect upon the German hotel personnel.

American businessmen who joined us on the S. S. Drottningholm directly from Berlin told us: "A few more such speeches and the masses are through with Hitler. They don't want to hear of another winter of war."

They said the depressing effect upon the population of the capi-

President Asks Declaration Of War On Three Countries; RAF Bombers Smash At Essen

Second Raid On
German Cities
Came After One
Night's Pause

By The Associated Press

LONDON, June 2 — The RAF turned the lethal, devastating might of 1,036
RAF planes loose on Germany last night, almost all of them on the region of the Nazi arsenal city of Essen.
Prime Minister Churchill announced today.

The second of the crushing raids which the RAF has made against the sources of Adolf Hitler's military strength in three days struck at the home of the huge Krupp munitions works and Churchill promised that more of even greater severity would follow "when we are joined, as we soon shall be, by the air force of the United States."

The Essen raid came after a pause of but one night, when bad weather held the RAF's great bomb-carrying armada grounded, after the mammoth attack by considerably more than 1,000
British bombers on Cologne.

Again, British losses were relatively slight for an air offensive of such magnitude. Churchill said 35 bombers had failed to return.

Something New For Germany

He told the House of Commons that the raiders had sown numerous and widespread fires last night and that the two raids introduced "a new phase in the British air offensive against Germany" which will put the enemy to "an ordeal the like of which never has been experienced in any country in continuity, severity or magnitude."

He cautioned the British, however, not to expect all future raids to be "above the four-figure scale" in number of planes adding that "methods of attack will be continually varied according to circumstances."

The air ministry's disclosure that aircraft of the bomber, fighter, coastal and army cooperation commands attacked enemy bases in Germany, France and the low countries to guard the route of the Essen raiders indicated that the night's operations may have been of a magnitude possibly equaling the startling strength

Naval Patrol Plane Crashes

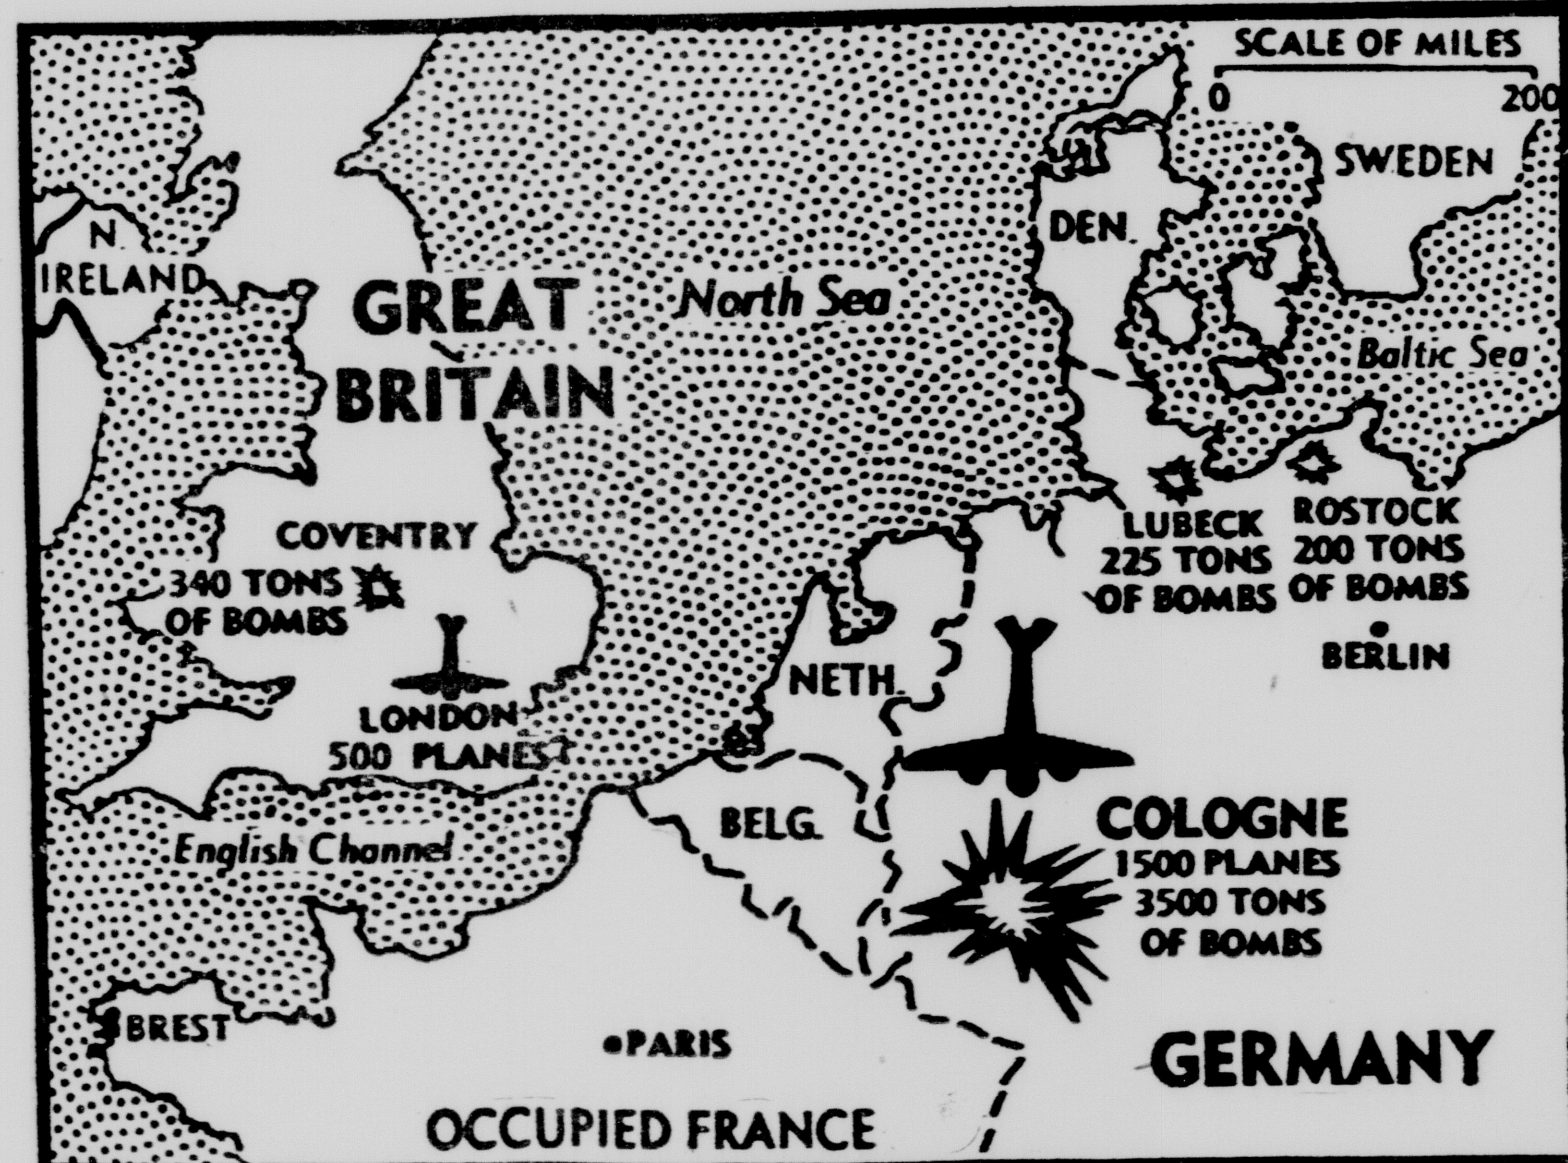

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2—(AP)—
The Twelfth Naval District
said today a naval patrol plane crashed shortly after midnight
about 25 miles south of here,
while on a patrol flight.

The navy did not disclose the number of crew members, but state highway officers said one man who walked into the town of Half Moon reported he was the only one of seven aboard that escaped.

Patrolmen said the man was badly burned and unable to give much information before he collapsed.

A navy spokesman said the wreckage of the ship operating out of the Alameda naval air station had not been found.

LONDON, June 2—(AP)—A large United Nations convoy carrying American and British war supplies to Russia, has reached a north Russian port after a running battle of five days and nights against German U-boats and well over 100 Nazi planes, the British announced today.

With almost constant daylight now in the far north waters, the admiralty said this was the most difficult time of the year to push convoys
through that route.

FOLKESTONE, England,

RAF planes roared across the

which southeast coast observers called one of the biggest daylight operations of the war.

Hour after hour many squadrons headed for various targets in northern France.
Planes returning early in the evening created a great din.

WASHINGTON, June 2 —
(AP)—President Manuel Quezon of the Philippine government told the house today that neither "death, ruin and destruction" had daunted the spirit of the Filipinos, nor lessened our faith in America.

Quezon, speaking to a well filled and silent house chamber, quoted Mr. Roosevelt as having told him:

"I give to the people of the Philippines my solemn pledge that their freedom will be redeemed and their independence established and protected."

As the members applauded
loudly, the slender statesman
who only recently came to this country, said:

"I hope that the pledge of the president of the United States will be considered as a pledge by every one of you."

BERLIN (from German broadcasts) June 2—(AP)—
The period of "straightening out the front lines on the long

was practically ended, military quarters said today as the high command reported only local action on the eastern war zone.

These military circles said that in recent weeks certain

Ruling On Welsh Case Wednesday

KANSAS CITY, June 2—(AP)—
Judge Nick T. Cave of the Kansas City court of appeals will rule tomorrow on the application of George W. Welsh, Jr., for release on a writ of habeas corpus pending his preliminary hearing on a murder charge, June 15.

The ruling, originally scheduled for today, was delayed by an oversight in filing proper legal instruments, Judge Cave said.

Welsh, twice freed from murder
charges in the death of his pretty 24-year-old sister, Leila, in March, 1941, faces a third charge filed by the state a few minutes after Peace Justice J. J. Dougherty ruled the evidence presented at a nine day preliminary hearing was not sufficient to hold him for jury trial.

Business Better In Sedalia

Business activity in Sedalia today is excellent, according to the Monthly Review of the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis, which has issued a bulletin to that effect.

General business during April, debts to individual accounts at the banks in Sedalia aggregated $3,078,000, and were 26 per cent greater than those for the same month last year. These debit figures represent for the most part checks against depositors'
accounts in payment of goods, services, and debts, and are considered a good indicator of general business activity.

FDR Tells Congress
Bulgaria, Hungary,
Rumania Declared
War Against U. S.

WASHINGTON, June 2
— (AP) —President Roosevelt asked Congress today
to declare war on Bulgaria, Hungary and Rumania.

The chief executive, in a terse message to the house of representatives, said that these three countries had declared war on the United States as "the instruments of Hitler."

They "are now engaged in military activities directed against the United Nations and are planning an extension of their activities," he added.

The message did not go to the senate, since it has not in session.

Text of Message

The text follows:

"The governments of Bulgaria, Hungary and Rumania have declared war against the United States. I realize that the three governments took this action not upon their own initiative or in response to the wishes of their own people but as the instruments of Hitler. These three governments are now engaged in military activities directed against the United Nations and are planning an extension of their activities.

"Therefore, I recommend that the congress recognize a state of war between the United States and Bulgaria, between the United States and Hungary, and between the United States and Rumania."

Action A Formality

The declaration of war against these three minor axis partners
was expected to be more or less of a formality, adding them officially to the list of countries with which the United States now is at war. So far, this government has declared war on Japan,
Germany and Italy.

Mr. Roosevelt's mention of plans for an extension of military activities by Bulgaria, Hungary and Rumania was without amplification. There have been frequent reports, however, that Hitler has been insisting that they supply
additional troops for the campaign against Russia.

Furthermore, advices from Europe have pointed to the possibility of the Nazis starting a new offensive in the form of a pincers movement on Iran and the Caucasus, with their rich oil reserves.

Tells Of Nazi Plot To Kidnap Mussolini

NEW YORK, June 2—(AP)—David Colin, of St. Louis, NBC correspondent in Rome, told yesterday on his arrival from Europe on the liner Drottningholm of a Nazi-inspired plot to kidnap Premier Mussolini.

Colin has returned from Lisbon in an exchange of prisoners with American diplomats, government workers, reporters and civilians.

Open anti-Nazi talk among Fascist officials prompted the plot hatched in April, Colin said, but it failed because of a conscience stricken conspirator. Part of the plan was the assassination of Count Ciano, Mussolini's son-in-law.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON AND ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON, June 2—For more than two months the president has been backing and filling on the question of coordinating the numerous government war information agencies under a single head. Chief reason for his long delay is the problem of deciding on the co-ordinator.

More than a score of names have been considered. It's a White House secret but the list finally has been sifted down to the following five:

William Bullitt, former U. S. ambassador to France and years ago a brilliant foreign correspondent.

Paul W. Garrett, vice president in charge of public relations of General Motors.

Raymond Rubicam, head of the firm of Young & Rubicam, a leading advertising agency.

Byron Price, war censor and former Associated Press executive.

Lowell Mellett, head of the office of government reports and one time newspaper editor.

Of the five, Price and Mellett have the most potent inner circle backing.

Pressing strongly for Price is White House Secretary Steve Early, an old newspaper chum of Price and largely responsible for his appointment as war censor.

Mellett's principal backer is Judge Sam Roseman, close personal adviser of the president who asked him to look over the field and recommend names for Information Co-ordinator. Mellett has told friends he didn't want the job. Also that he didn't consider Price fitted for it.

The Tape Is Still Red
A group of seven officials in the Office of Price Administrator chipped in $20 apiece and made up a purse to lend to office girls who hadn't enough money to pay their room rent.

Reason: Though they had been working for the government a month or more (some since April) the girls had received no pay. The OPA is expanding fast, and the creaking wheels of old line agencies, such as civil service commission and treasury department, can't keep up with the pace.

One of the girls in this distress group had taken a part time job as a waitress, to earn her dinners, waiting for Uncle Sam to pay off. All of the girls are working overtime.

Murray Retaliation
Phil Murray is not going to take his curt ouster as vice president of the United Mine Workers lying down.

The CIO executive committee, meeting in Washington this week, will return the booting with a couple of swift kicks to John L. Lewis's paunchy mid-riff.

Retaliatory moves planned are (1) dismissal of "Denny" Lewis, brother of John L., from his $12,000 a year sinecure as head of the United Construction Workers Organizing Committee; (2) a militant crackdown on District 50, the Mine Workers branch which Lewis has been using to organize dairy farmers and raid other CIO jurisdictions.

John appointed "Denny" to the Construction Workers' job and at one time, while boss of the CIO, supported the union with a $20,000 a month handout. Under the CIO constitution, "Denny," not being an elected officer, is subject to removal by the Construction Workers executive board. Murray and four other Lewis foes constitute the board, and any time they decide to do it, "Denny" is a gone goose.

In this case brother John will face the necessity of adding one more member of his family to the United Mine Worker payroll. Already five are drawing UMW checks.

Feeling within the CIO against District 50 is at fever pitch. Completely under Lewis's domination—his daughter, Kathryn is the $7,500 a year secretary-treasurer of the union—District 50 was used by him to give the works to Murray, and for other anti-CIO axing jobs. A number of CIO unions have demanded retaliatory war on District 50, but Murray held them back in the hope that some agreement could be worked out with Lewis.

But with that door closed, the full fury of long smoldering CIO wrath will be turned loose on District 50.

Murray vs. Lewis

Neither Lewis nor Murray pulled any punches in their verbal battle during the closed door U. M. W. policy committee sessions preceding Murray's ouster.

Lewis started the fireworks by denouncing Murray's close friend R. J. Thomas, president of the United Auto Workers and James Carey, able young CIO secretary. Lewis followed these cracks by charging that Murray once had called him, Lewis, a Jap. Murray denied that.

"I didn't call you a Jap," he retorted. "But there is one thing you should remember. Even a Jap doesn't turn against his own country."

Murray also bitterly denounced the scheme to dismiss him from his UMW vice presidency as an "indecent and indefensible procedure."

"This is being done by men who don't represent the rank and file of mine workers," Murray charged. "I have been a UMW officer for 25 years and yet I don't know many of those present here today. This room is packed with strange faces."

This charge, however, didn't faze Lewis. Calmly he replied in one of his melodramatic rumbles.

"Mr. Murray says he has been a UMW officer for 25 years. As such he should be fully familiar with all the practices and procedure of the union. If he acquired that familiarity only at this late date, then there is no use discussing them with him."

Note: William Hutchison, head of the AFL carpenters, who cooked up with Lewis the surprise AFL-CIO peace move he sprang last December, is secretly jockeying to bring the miners back into the AFL fold. Working with Hutchison is Matty Woll, AFL vice president. Woll and Hutchison were the chief engineers of the recent AFL peace proposal made by William Green, whom they adroitly used as a "front" for their maneuver. Hutchison had secretly discussed the maneuver in advance with Lewis.

Midget 'Subs' In Raid Destroyed

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, TUESDAY, June 2.—(P)—Three Japanese midget submarines which attacked Sydney harbor Sunday night were destroyed and the wrecks of two have been recovered. General MacArthur's headquarters announced today.

All that the pigmy attackers accomplished was the sinking of an old steamer used as a ferry. It was sunk by the blast of a torpedo that struck the shore-line after missing a larger objective.

The communiqué also said that nine Japanese planes, seven bombers and two fighters, which attacked Port Moresby in New Guinea yesterday were shot down. Two allied fighters were lost and slight damage was done to workshops and houses at the allied base.

MYSTERIOUS MESSAGE

CHAPTER XVIII

AT dinner Talcott found himself seated at the chief engineer's table beside June Paterson. Two empty chairs were, he presumed, for MacDowell and Halsey. Professor Constantine, surrounded by books and pill bottles, was alone at a table by the stairs and apparently oblivious to his surroundings. Martha Swenson had made a new acquaintance and, it seemed, a conquest; the ship's physician was pouring his soul into her ear.

Talcott stowed away food and thought about his wireless message. From Lowell Byrd it was; three words only, "On the job," in response to his transcription of events. But it lifted a great burden from his mind and at the same time reminded him that he had work to do. How could he, isolated on this ship, accomplish anything within the four days allotted to him before he must face accusations in New York? Where could he begin?

By paying court to June Paterson? Hardly. She had become tantalizingly desirable; had changed completely since the stormy hours on Abas. He was not blind to her glances, the mounting color beneath her translucent skin, the lingering pressure of her hand on his arm. But what could he do? With prison and possibly death facing him, what could he offer her?

Halsey came down to dinner finally, and Talcott was immeasurably relieved. Halsey was pale and rather stiff, but his clear eyes and thoughtful manner told that whatever fight he had held with himself he must have won. He spoke quite civilly to Talcott, occupied the chair on June Paterson's left. Talcott, taking advantage of the break, excused himself to look after MacDowell.

And as he left the dining salon he felt her disappointed eyes follow him.

MacDowell was doing as well as could be expected. "This always happens to me," he groaned. "I'll be like this until we get to New York. I dunno why I let 'em talk me into it."

"You should get out in the air,

This place is like a shoebox." "You're tellin' me. Air. Well, maybe later I'll try it. Tell the skipper of this tub to decide which direction he wants to go."

Some instinct, sharpened to an incredible fineness in the past troublesome hours, warned Talcott. An out-of-place squeak, an almost inaudible scrape; whirling, he yanked open the door.

A MAN was there, gripping the door jambs to remain upright. An incredibly ugly man. There was not a single hair to his head; he had no eyebrows, no eyelashes; he looked, horribly, like some thing that had just been born. Yet he must have been all of 50.

A flush extended over the full surface of his baldness and his red-rimmed little eyes were beady with the fright of discovery.

"Well?" Talcott demanded. "Excuse, please!" "What the devil do you want?" "My stateroom is the next—I make mistake."

"Do you usually enter your stateroom on hands and knees?" A fleeting, baleful stare was his answer. And then, key in hand, the hairless one groped to the adjoining door and let himself in.

Talcott watched long and thoughtfully. Certainly he had never seen this man before; impossible for memory to forget that ugly head. Yet something about him prodded memory. And the memory, whatever it might be, was not pleasant.

Perhaps it was of no consequence. Talcott shrugged and gave noncommittal answer to MacDowell's moaned question. Briefly he set off along the corridor, trying to shake the vision of that ugly, thing-like head from his mind. Halfway to the companionway he had to hold up to allow a steward to bring an armload of linen from a locker.

On impulse he asked, "Who is that passenger with the completely bald head?" The steward frowned. "Bald—Oh, him! That's Mr. Webber. He's a tailor in New York. His first vacation in twenty years, he said. We had him on the down trip. He stayed over in Saint Thomas—He was on B Deck coming down. Got changed down here because there was too much noise—He's a good tailor. Measuring me for a suit. Funny, ain't it? On his vacation and still working, see what I mean?"

And that was that. Bald-head had been on the down trip and his stateroom was different going back. Which might account for

NEW YORK.—Kitchen police is not always the soldier's penance—witness this picture of Sunday night supper in the making in a USO club where servicemen choose to do the cooking, but with a girl in the kitchen. Newest stunt in what has become an institution in many of the 432 USO Clubs, officials here report, is for the soldiers to prepare food of exotic inspiration. In Tallahoma, Tennessee, a soldier whose father has been chief to the Italian royal family, concocts an Italian meal such as rationed Italians only dream of now. In the same clubhouse, there's a soldier of Russian descent who hands out a borscht and a shashlik which always pack the dining room. USO expects the institution to spread right along as the organization spreads. About 500 new clubhouses are scheduled to open this year-end.

Fire So Big Fliers Could Not See Bombs Explode

By DREW MIDDLETON

WITH THE RAF BOMBER COMMAND, June 2—(P)—

"Listen brother, there's not a damned thing left in Cologne."

It was a 21-year-old Texan, "Bud" Cardinal of North Worth, speaking and Bud ought to know, for he was one of the first RAF airmen to fly over the now-ruined German Rhineland city in Saturday night's 1,250-plane raid.

"You had to line up as though it was a movie," he elaborated. "We went in plane by plane and when the boys really got swinging you couldn't see the explosions of the bombs because the fire down there was so big."

Bud, who came out of Texas to join what he called "the Royal Texas Air Force" in Canada, was among the 6,000-odd British, Scotch, Australian, Canadian and Barbadoes airmen who wheeled

the big bombers over Cologne and its industrial environs.

"Jock," a 19-year-old Scotch veteran—Cologne was his 18th big raid—said the huge Hohenzollern bridge across the Rhine "must have been blown to bits; nothing could stand in what we gave them."

All the pilots agreed that the RAF tactic of sending in bombers to drop incendiaries first had outlined the targets in flames and made the job easier for those who came later with the 3,000 tons of explosive.

Honychurch from Brooklyn who was in on the raid," said Cardinal. "He isn't around just now but he says his ship came in slow, let go, then turned off. He said the bursting bombs looked like about a thousand big guns firing."

Still Chance For "Crack"

Cardinal, who was a second string guard in Southern Methodist university in 1938-39, took this correspondent over to meet Leonard Johnson, 28, of Corpus Christi, another "Royal Texas" airman—but a disappointed one.

Even before introductions, Johnson said sourly: "Don't ask me, I never reached Cologne. One of my motors conked out and I had to turn back. A hell of a note; I've been over five times on big raids but I missed the brass ring."

"Don't worry, you'll get a crack," Cardinal said. Johnson brightened and agreed: "Yeah, we'll be going back and with just as many if not more."

"Look, you know when Commander Harris said a thousand bombers a night would knock the Germans out of the war," Johnson went on. "Well, tell 'em at home that's right."

"Tell 'em to send some stuff, real stuff over here and we'll knock these Krauts off the map."

Both Cardinal and Johnson agreed that "the British are good."

"They get you down some time because they're so anxious to be correct," said Johnson. "But after the way they organized this raid and carried it out, I take off my hat to them."

"They got guts, too," Cardinal put in. "Though they don't go around hollering about it."

"A kid in my plane got a machine-gun bullet through his leg Saturday night. We didn't know about it until he collapsed getting out of the plane."

"The British learned this business the hard way and the right way. And say, these mass raids are the thing."

"Those Krauts didn't know what to do the other night. Fighters and flaks all fired wild. If we keep rollin' and our air force comes in we'll end this war sooner than you think."

It would be cruelly ironic to honor the memory of those who have fallen in battle, by needlessly wasting manpower and material needed for the victory that will preserve the freedom for which they died.—Col. John Stillwell, president of the National Safety Council.

Propose Tax On The Slot Music Boxes

More Stringent Action Looms On Overtime Parkers

An ordinance, read for the first time at the city council regular meeting Monday night, which will be brought up for a vote at a later meeting, provides for what is termed an amusement tax. It provides for a $10 per year tax on all music boxes, played with coins, and for all pin ball machines, which also are operated with payment of coins. It was stated enforcement of such an ordinance will bring in about $1,000 annually in revenue.

The ordinance is one recommended by the Missouri Municipal League, and similar to one passed recently at Cape Girardeau. It provides that the owner or renter are equally liable for payment of the tax, and a sticker, showing the expiration date, will be placed on each box, if the ordinance passes.

Renewal permits were granted to Mrs. F. L. Garst, 115 West Broadway, to sell 3.2 beer and to Carl Abbott to sell liquor by the drink, and a permit was granted Julius Hyken to sell package liquor.

Drop Uncollectable Tax
W. B. Hert, Jr., city collector,

asked permission to mark off $637 in outlawed or uncollectable ad valorem tax. This tax, which is a merchants tax, represented unpaid amounts owed by merchants, most of whom are now out of business. An ordinance will be prepared permitting this to be done.

There was considerable discussion by Mayor A. H. Wilks and the council, concerning the parking meters, and persons who fail to report to police headquarters when they receive tickets, given for overtime parking. To date it has been the custom to charge these people only five cents, but more stringent action is going to be taken in the near future for those who abuse this courtesy and do not report at police headquarters.

All members of the council were present with the exception of H. S. Barman.

British Cruiser Trinidad Lost

LONDON, June 2.—(P)—admiralty Monday night announced the loss of the British cruiser Trinidad.

The Trinidad, of the 8,000-ton Fiji class, was last in the news when she sank a German destroyer in a fight between the Germans and an English-Russian squadron conveying supplies to Murmansk, Russia.

She was commissioned in April, 1938. Her armament consisted of twelve 6-inch guns, eight 4-inch anti aircraft and 16 smaller guns, and it carried three airplanes.

U. S. Citizens Return From Overseas

Arrive On Exchange Liner Landing At Jersey City

By FRED VANDERSCHMIDT
JERSEY CITY, N. J., June 2.—(P)—Grimy white in the rain, the Swedish diplomatic exchange liner Drottningholm, came up the bay to its pier Monday with 908 Americans, Latin Americans, Quasi Americans and immigrants after a safe but exhausting 10-day trip from the enemy controlled continent.

She was shadowed by at least three U-boats, all of which vanished correctly after viewing her unmistakable colors and floodlit "diplomat" markings. Most of her tired, nervous human cargo was ill on a calm sea before the gangplank came down this morning to disembark diplomats, babies, old and young men and women, dogs, pet turtles and even two captive crickets.

For an hour and a half after the Drottningholm had tied up, the passengers crowding the decks and the anxious hundreds on the pier waited in a dramatic, hushed tension.

Then a black-shrouded casket bearing the body of Mrs. William D. Leahy, wife of the ambassador to France, was lowered to the pier where a navy honor guard covered it with the stars and stripes. Mrs. Leahy died in Vichy, France.

Preceded by several naval officers, Admiral Leahy, grey and lonely, walked quickly down the gangway and entered one of several cars enroute to a Washington train. He made no statement.

Only then were the other passengers permitted to disembark.

Return 573 U. S. Citizens
The Drottningholm brought from Lisbon a total of 573 United States citizens, including 169 diplomats. There were 185 diplomats from Latin America.

Some U. S. authorities believed that one more voyage by the Drottningholm would return almost all the legitimate Americans who still want to come home. The ship is due to return to Lisbon this week, for a second round trip.

Meanwhile, immigration authorities were busy far into this afternoon aboard the ship, coping with the entry problem.

The American diplomats aboard the boat spoke guardedly, if at all, of the conditions in the countries in which they had been interned. But the unofficial passengers told of appalling hunger on the continent, especially in Greece.

There were varied accounts of the state of German morale, and of German treatment of American internees as well. Some of those sent to the little known concentration camp in an ancient stone castle at Laufen, on the German-Austrian border, said they arrived handcuffed in Paris and confined in railway prison cars.

The first of the three submarines which sighted the Drottningholm looked her over 22 hours out of Lisbon; the other appeared on Friday, May 29. All closed their hatches and dived quickly after establishing the ship's identity, and Captain Sigfrid Ericsson, master of the Drottningholm, kept the incidents generally quiet lest the passengers become alarmed.

Abandon Ship Sunk By Torpedo

KEY WEST, Fla., June 2.—(P)—Navy gunners, saved from a medium-sized U. S. merchantman sunk in the Atlantic on the night of May 12, told how they reluctantly abandoned ship without so much as a single post-shot at the elusive axis submarine that attacked them.

Sinking of the vessel was announced by the navy Thursday, after three injured members of the crew had been taken to St. Thomas, Virgin Island, for medical attention and 15 others had been brought here. Survivors believed all but one of the remaining 22 crewmen had reached lifeboats and rafts, although they had not been reported.

After one torpedo struck the vessel, Paul C. Padgett of Jacksonville said he and other members of the naval gun crew were ordered to man the gun. Anxiously they peered into the darkness, hoping for a clear shot at the submarine.

Instead, the crafty raider remained out of sight, probably submerged, and sent another torpedo into the ship. It began to sink rapidly, and was abandoned. The vessel caught fire after the first torpedo hit, but the flames quickly burned out without spreading. Similarly, the second shot started a small blaze that was out before the ship sank.

Employers Can Protect Benefits

Asked To Look After Rights Of Their Employees

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., June 1.—Although unemployment compensation benefits rights of Service men were protected by special action of the Missouri Legislature last July, the efforts of the legislature and the Unemployment Compensation Commission of Missouri in behalf of service men may be partially nullified unless supported by completed cooperation of Missouri employers, Elmer John Keitel, Sr., Chairman of the Commission, stated recently.

"The commission has urged Missouri employers, when reporting wage earnings of employees who have left their firms to go into the armed forces, to specify clearly on the wage report that the employee's separation was for military service. Unless this fact is clearly stated, the service man's wage earnings, instead of being 'frozen' in a special file so that they will be readily available when he returns to civilian life, may find their way into obsolete files when regular quarterly purges of the files are made," Keitel explained.

Few Are Complying
"A recent check-up of wage reports received by the Unemployment Compensation Commission revealed that less than 50 per cent of Missouri employers are complying with commission instructions to specify military separations," Keitel said. "The commission feels sure that this fact is due, not to neglect or carelessness on the part of employers, but to lack of understanding of the urgent necessity for this action."

"In view of the sacrifice our service men are making to preserve our rights and liberties abroad, the least we can do is to protect their rights at home. After victory is won, thousands of returning soldiers may have no means of supporting themselves while they find their places in Missouri industries unless their unemployment compensation rights are protected now."

tal was tremendous. America Spelled Doom
Their experience was like ours five months previously: Our grocer, our barber, our butcher, not to speak of our closer friends, literally cried when we made our last purchases or bade them farewell. They all realized instinctively and from their recollection of the war of 1914-18 that America's entry into the war—forced by Hitler himself—would spell the doom of Germany.

Aboard the Drottningholm I heard an elderly lady, a refugee and obviously from Wurtemberg judging by her dialect, discuss the war with an old man whose speech indicated he came from East Prussia.

"The war simply must end this summer," the elderly woman said. "All the men from the front who come home on furlough tell us it is so terrible out east that they won't have another winter of it." "Yes, that's the way we feel up our way," nodded the East Prussian.

Adolf Hitler's declaration of war upon the United States showed a similar misgauging of the psychology of the masses.

Brighter Side

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK — It was only a dollar, but you need lots of 'em to pay income taxes and things, so when Mrs. Charles Glasco's daughter dropped one down a sewer last week she wrote and told Queens Borough President James A. Burke about it.

Burke dispatched a truck-load of members of the Queens Bureau of Sewers to the scene and after wading around half a day they found the bill, washed it off and returned it to Mrs. Glasco, who said she was very happy about it.

Defies Landing In Australia

MELBOURNE, Australia, June 2—(AP)—Prime Minister John Curtin, who has warned Australia repeatedly of the danger of a Japanese invasion attempt, declared today that "Japan's war program has at last suffered a stalemate."

"The enemy has found his southern adventure beyond his capacity to execute," the prime minister declared in launching the commonwealth's second liberty loan.

"I defy the enemy to land large forces in Australia."

The goal of the loan drive amounts to $113,400,000 as compared with the $157,140,000 subscribed in the first loan.

Curtin said he spoke in a spirit of confidence born of knowledge of how the war is proceeding.

"The thrusts the enemy made at our soil were repulsed," he said, "the enemy had come with bombing planes and inflicted damage but was driven off with losses."

Curtin declared the initiative no longer "was so decisively" with Japan.

"The problem of bringing together at one point of crucial responsibility the resources of a great number of countries widely spread geographically has been steadily grappled with and at last has been overcome," he said.

Second Rad On German Cities Came After One Night's Pause

of the Cologne assault.

The Communique:

It's communique said:

"Last night a force of a thousand and aircraft of the bomber command continued the offensive against western Germany. The main objectives were war industries of the Ruhr, including Essen."

"Preliminary reports of the crews indicate that the attacks were pressed home most effectively."

"During the attack on the Ruhr, aircraft of the bomber, fighter, coastal and army cooperation commands attacked enemy air-dromes in Germany, France and the low countries."

"Thirty-five of our aircraft are missing from all these operations." These losses were nine fewer than 44 of Saturday night—still far below the 10 percent losses which military authorities generally agree can be afforded by a successful air smash.

Heavy Deluge

On a basis of comparison with the Cologne attack, Essen probably was deluged under about 6,000,000 pounds of incendiary and explosive bombs poured down from planes manned by 6,000 fliers.

Canadian fliers, it was announced officially, again were at the controls of some of the giant four-engine Stirlings, Lancasters, Halifaxes and lighter Wellingtons and Hampdens.

Some of these planes, among them craft which were back in action after having been over Cologne in the RAF's first ponderous blow, can carry four tons of missiles.

Bombers Went Hunting
While the thousand bombers were hauling their deadly freight to the Ruhr, one of the largest "intruder" forces of the war—composed of American-made Boston and Hurricane fighter bombers—went hunting over the intervening occupied territory as they did on the night of the operations against Cologne.

Drawing to themselves the attention of the German anti-aircraft gunners, these forces bombarded several airfields to blank out the night fighter defense, and attacked shipping and railroads in Holland, Belgium and France.

One Dornier bomber was reported shot down over Holland and several other German planes damaged.

Hardly before the last of the night bombers had rolled down on their home bases, the day shift of Britain's stepped-up offensive was in the clear air early today, streaking for the French coast.

Ipswich Was Target
Just as the Germans sought to repay for the desolation of Cologne with a retaliatory attack Sunday night on the ancient cathedral city of Canterbury, they announced today that another old-world English town, Ipswich, had been the target of their night air blows.

United States observers were believed to have gone over again with the RAF last night.

They were preparing, presumably, for what Lieut.-Gen. Henry H. Arnold, chief of the United States Army Air Force, yesterday called the hope of American fliers "very soon to fly and fight beside the RAF in attacks which the Germans 'cannot meet, defeat or survive.'"

(The German radio said British planes attacked western and northwestern Germany and that more than a score of bombers were reported shot down.)

Rommel Halts And Re-groups Two Divisions

Gambles On Chance To Keep Offensive Alive

CAIRO, June 2—(AP)—A sudden shift in tactics by desert-wise Nazi Field Marshal Erwin Rommel indicated today he might be gambling in a desperate chance to keep his Libyan offensive alive even at the risk of a shattering blow to the backbone of his forces.

Latest advices from the North African front said Rommel had called a halt to the flight of his two armored divisions and was regrouping them.

The RAF, reporting decreased activity because of dust storms, nevertheless kept up attacks on enemy air fields at Derna and other objectives at Timimi, Bengasi and Martuba and shot down two German fighters at a loss of four of its own.

Caught behind the British line southwest of Tobruk after skirting it, the Nazis had been struggling since noon Saturday to hold open two gaps through British minefields and extricate their trapped forces from a costly pounding by British tanks, guns and planes.

Rommel Elusive Fighter

The British, who have failed to keep Rommel's forces locked in traps where they seemed doomed to annihilation, recognize their desert antagonist as an elusive fighter and one who would not yield without the utmost resistance.

One speculation, therefore, was that the reported new German maneuver was a time gaining device to hold the axis forces together while supplies and fuel are brought up so that they can fight their way out, rather than try an outright race for safety with the resultant risk of heavy casualties.

Another possibility, however, was that resourceful Rommel hoped to sit tight until reinforcements could reach him and then try again to shove his drive into forward gear toward Tobruk.

Thus, on the seventh day since the Germans launched their offensive, the situation still was in flux in the heat and whirling sands of North Africa.

Advantage With British

But the British said the advantage still lay with them. Although they bided their time about claiming victory, they had stopped the axis push short of Tobruk—which presumably the enemy must take this time before trying to smash further eastward—and their 50-mile defense system from Ain El Gazala, on the coast, inland to Bir Hacheim still was a barrier.

On the other hand, the Nazis who had swept around the southern anchor of the line, found themselves hemmed inside, except for the two gaps in the minefields 15 miles apart, and pounded by the British from all sides.

For miles around Knightsbridge, wrecked and abandoned Nazi war machines lay on the British-held battlefield waiting for British salvage crews to reclaim them.

DETROIT, June 2—(AP)—Spokesman for the Ford Motor Co. and the United Automobile Workers—CIO today began the negotiation of a new contract covering more than 100,000 Ford employees in all Ford plants in the United States.

A dollar-a-day wage increase for all employees, a $100 war bond in lieu of vacation and an umpire appeal system for handling grievances are among the union's demands.

The company has said it would not yield to the wage increase demand.

Looks For Japs To Retaliate

Legion Officials
Highly Commend
Pettis County Post

A certainty that Japanese bombers will retaliate on the United States for the blasting of Japan by the American air force was asserted by Dr. G. A. Clason, Clinton, Missouri state commander of the American Legion, before the Pettis County Legion post Monday night.

Uncharted isles in the Pacific ocean which are being used by the Japanese as springboards were cited by Commander Clason, who stated that these isles might well be used as the origin of an attack on the continent of the United States itself. Proof of the existence of Japanese activity in such remote parts of the Pacific has been demonstrated in the uncovering of such movements very recently in hitherto unsuspected places.

"Japan is willing to risk much to be able to tell its people that planes with the emblem of the rising sun have bombed the United States," Commander Clason said. And one attack would not satisfy them.

Ed Warren, assistant state adjutant of the Legion who accompanied Dr. Clason to Sedalia, interjected that it has been shown that the most ideal time for such an aerial attack would be shortly before dawn, because of the inactivity of cities at that time.

A definite step toward turning the war to the offensive for the United Nations, shown by the bombing of Cologne, Germany, Saturday night by RAF and American fliers was pointed out by assistant adjutant Warren.

Both Dr. Clason and Warren highly commended the Pettis county post and the Sedalia district for its "over-the-top" campaign for membership in the local post. The commander asserted that it "surpassed" anything he had ever heard of in its complete successfulness, and described the district as "the best in the state in membership."

S. J. Timbrius was appointed by Ralph Baker, commander of the Pettis county post, to serve as chairman of a committee of two to take charge of arrangements for local attendance at a Jefferson City Legion meeting June 18.

National Commander Lynn Stambaugh will be guest of honor

Saving Bonds Or Checks For Tires

KANSAS CITY, June 2.—(P)—Within two weeks the government will have in operation in Kansas and western Missouri its program of buying new and used tires from individual motorists to ease the rubber shortage.

Frank Hodges, manager of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, said purchasing boards were to be set up immediately in all 105 Kansas counties and the 19 western Missouri counties.

Tire sellers will get receipts for the tires and actual payment will be made later by the RFC in war saving bonds or treasury checks. The program is entirely voluntary.

Indicated Big Battles Soon

By HENRY C. CASSIDY

MOSCAU, June 2.—(P)—Each side dug in on its new lines in the Crimea and the Ukraine and prepared for a possible outbreak of even greater battles on the southern front Thursday as dispatches from that theater reported inaction for the first time in three weeks.

The midnight communique said there was no essential change in positions anywhere on the front during the day.

It listed 432 German planes destroyed in the week ending May 30, against 134 Russian losses for the period.

In something resembling a standoff, the Russians about Kharkov were holding on to the wedges they had driven into the German lines and to a bridgehead across an important river where they had brought the German counter-attack to a stop after their own drive had slowed down.

Explosion On Tanker Accident

MEXICO CITY, June 2.—(P)—An accident and not sabotage caused the explosion aboard the American tanker Cacalilao which caused the deaths of at least four men and injuries to 20 at Tampico Sunday, Gen. Anacleto Lopez, commander of the Tampico garrison, informed the national defense ministry Monday.

The mishap, the general said, apparently resulted from carelessness in loading the vessel. An inquiry is under way to fix responsibility.

Besides the four known dead, Lopez reported that five workers were missing. Fourteen American crewmen were among the injured.

Killing Over Use Of Profanity

STEELE, Mo., June 2.—(P)—Two men, one of whom was described as a husband incensed over the use of profanity before his wife, were held Monday in Pemiscot county jail at Caruthersville in connection with the slaying of Robert N. McNeill, 18-year-old Elythessville, Ark., construction worker.

Coroner J. V. Moore said Night Officer P. F. Brown, testified at an inquest that Willis R. Cross, 28, shot McNeill Saturday night after his friend, Parker Hoppgood, 25, knocked him down with an axe following an argument over use of profanity before Cross' wife.

Police Magistrate H. Ballentine said he issued first degree murder warrants for the two men. Preliminary hearings are scheduled for June 8.

MILWAUKEE, June 2.—(P)—Adolph Henning, cashier of a Neenah, Wis., bank who recently was sentenced to a federal penitentiary for embezzlement, was erroneously identified as finance officer and treasurer of the 1941 American Legion national convention.

Serious Racial Trouble Averted

CHARLESTON, Mo., June 2.—(P)—State highway patrolmen arrived in time to prevent possible serious race trouble Sunday afternoon at Wyatt, a small community seven miles east of here, after a brief battle between Negroes and whites.

The flareup resulted in the injury of two persons, the jailing of a third and confiscation of three automatic rifles.

Sergt. Melvin Dace said Arthur Sparks, white filling station operator, was slashed across the back with a knife in an argument resulting when two Negroes drove their car into a gasoline pump.

Several carloads of state troopers rushed to the scene and dispersed a crowd which had gathered, arrested a Negro identified as James Branson and took the rifles from Negro residents. No charges had been placed against Branson.

One Negro was beaten over the head with an oil can wielded by a bystander at the filling station.

Sterilization Law Unconstitutional

WASHINGTON, June 2.—(P)—An Oklahoma statute authorizing the sterilization of habitual criminals was held unconstitutional Monday by supreme court on the ground that it classified stealing chickens as a crime and excluded embezzlement.

Justice Douglas delivered the unanimous opinion, applying to an Oklahoma court order for the sterilization of Jack T. Skinner of Pittsburgh county, convicted once of stealing chickens and twice of robbery with firearms.

The 1935 statute authorized the sterilization of persons convicted for the third time of "crimes amounting to felonies involving moral turpitude." The legislation exempted offenses "arising out of the prohibitory laws, revenue acts, embezzlement or political offenses."

"A person who enters a chicken coop and steals chickens," Douglas said, "commits a felony and he may be sterilized if he is thrice convicted."

"If, however, he is a bailee of the property and fraudulently appropriates it, he is an embezzler. Hence no matter how habitual his proclivities for embezzlement are and no matter how often his conviction, he may not be sterilized."

Douglas asserted that the act was condemned "by its failure to meet the requirements of the equal protection clause of the 14th amendment."

All-Nations Win Sunday 9 To 5 Score

Merchants Play Jefferson City At Park Here Tonight

The Sedalia Merchants baseball team lost a hard fought game to the hard hitting All Nations of Kansas City Sunday afternoon by a score of 9 to 5 before a large crowd Sunday afternoon.

The Merchants secured the first run of the game in the third inning when Light scored, the visitors bunched several hits in the fourth to score 4 runs, but the Merchants came back in the ball game in the fifth when Summers hit a home run with two men on base.

Lefty Gus Shirley hurled excellent ball for the locals until the seventh when he was spiked on a play at first base and was forced to retire from the game. Thomas coming in cold to finish the inning, Coffelt came in the game in the eighth to finish the game.

The All Nations scored two in the seventh one in the eighth and two in the ninth, while the Merchants scored a run in the eighth when Zey doubled and scored on a drive by Livengood. The locals made a bid for the game in the ninth with two men on the sacks Summers drove a terrific liner into the far right field corner which Williams just managed to catch with one hand to end the game.

Game Well Played
The game was well played and several excellent plays were made. Barnes managed several catches of drives in left field. For the locals Zey and Barnes with two hits each led the hitters while Hamilton was the leading stickler for the visitors with three safeties.

Open Night Season
Tuesday night will open the night baseball season for the locals with the Jefferson City Red Birds providing the opposition. The game will start at 8 o'clock and baseball fans in this vicinity are assured of a red hot game between these bitter rivals.

Visitors Won Five Games
The Capitol City club will send their star righthander Kenneth Towley to the mound with the veteran "Lefty" Ross in reserve. The visitors have won five games and lost none so far this season. The Merchants will be out to stop the Red Birds and thus break a slump which has overtaken them since their first two games which resulted in victories.

Manager Palmer Nichols has not announced his pitcher as most all of them saw action during the two games over the week end and it is not likely that the pitcher

Sports Roundup

BY HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
Wide World Sports Columnist

NEW YORK, June 2—You've been hearing a lot about those football teams the navy expects to have next fall—maybe because the navy figures a little publicity won't hurt enlistments—but now it turns out there may be some right good army teams, too. For instance, reports around Louisville say that an unidentified Ivy League coach who also is a former army officer or else Greasy Neale may become coach at Fort Knox... and the air corps technical school at Keesler, Field, Miss., is lining up a ten-game schedule with such colleges as Miami, Alabama, Purdue, Texas Aggies, Tulsa and Mississippi on the list.

Today's Guest Star
Walter Lynch, Jacksonville (Fla.) Journal: "Can't you lend Joe Louis $117,000 to pay his income tax?"

One Minute Sports Page
Jimmy Frain, Tony Galento's manager, reports that Tony, who has been successively an ice-cream, bartender, saloon keeper, fighter, referee, umpire, song writer, singer and stage actor, now has branched out on a new career in the movies by making a short film... Corp. Jim Turnesa, who almost won the P.G.A., explains his silence thus: "I come from a big family and was the next to the youngest boy. So I just got in the habit of not talking."... Manager Dully Rhodes of the Charleston Sally League club, livens up batting practice by having the public address system give out with swing music... Wonder what he uses for the pitchers?

Quote, Unquote
Rip Russell (after making his outfield debut for the Cubs in an army-navy benefit game): "We infielders always used to maintain that an outfielder should pay to get into a ball game. And doggoned if we weren't right. The very first time I play in the outfield in the big leagues, I have to pay to get into the park."

Service Dept.
Ensign Cleo John Dobson was captain of Hank Iba's first successful basketball team at Oklahoma A & M a few years back. The other day he received the Distinguished Flying Cross for sinking a Jap submarine and performing other feats during the raids on the Marshall and Gilbert islands. Recently "Dobby" wrote his parents: "Here's where my basketball under Iba comes in handy—you have to think and act in one motion in this game out here."... A fast breaking attack helps, too... Art Rose, the fight trainer, has just received a letter from his son Bill, a Canadian flyer, who reports bagging three German planes.

Cleaning The Cuff
The good old days are about to return to Yale... Report is that the two Heffelfinger boys of Minnesota, whose uncle, Pudge, was quite a guy, are headed for duty at New Haven. They both excel at football, basketball, baseball and hockey.... The Chalky Wright-Harry Jeffra fight at Baltimore has been postponed for June 15 to the 19 because the promoter doesn't want to cut in on any army show... W. W. Crenshaw, the California boss owner, also has a financial interest in a few golf courses, so his racing colors are green, with crossed golf clubs in back.

Joe Gordon Leads League In Hitting

Doerr Few Points Behind; Phelps In National League

PRINCETON, N. J., June 2—(P)—May be there's still hope for the St. Louis Browns, only major league club never to have won a pennant.

Princeton, always below the .500 mark in the eastern intercollegiate baseball league until last season, now has clinched its second straight conference crown.

Path Of Glory Leads To The Nat'l League

Haven With Nationals For Waning Stars Of The American League

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Editor

Another American Leaguer has found that the path of glory leads but to the National League. Since the Boston Braves provided a temporary haven for Babe Ruth in 1935 many waning stars in the junior circuit have found refuge in the National League—among them Al Simmons, Schoolboy Rowe, Johnny Allen, Fred (Dixie) Walker, Gerald Walker, Rollie Hemsley, Bill Werber, Zeke Bonura, Debs Garms, Bump Hadley, Monte Pearson and Ellsworth (Babe) Dahlgren.

A Great Slugger Sold
Now Jimmie Foxx, one of the greatest righthanded sluggers in major league history, has been sold to the Chicago Cubs by the Boston Red Sox only a couple of weeks after the Cubs had given up Dahlgren because their first base job was being adequately handled by Glen Russell and Phil Cavaretta.

Foxx is the fourth prominent American leaguer to be taken by a National league club this season and the other three have not as yet done anything to distinguish themselves in their new surroundings.

The Cincinnati Reds, who had great success with Werber after buying him from the Philadelphia Athletics, acquired Catcher Rollie Hemsley and Outfielder Gerald Walker last winter with the expectation that this pair would restore the Reds to pennant contenders.

However, neither has been able to hold a regular job. At the end of last week Walker, who batted over .300 for several seasons in the American league, had a .190 average and Hemsley one of .129.

Schoolboy With Dodgers
The Brooklyn Dodgers, for whom Dixie Walker became a star obtained Rowe from Detroit last month and have used him both as a relief pitcher and as a pinch hitter with indifferent results.

Double X may turn the trend again in favor of the transplanted junior leaguers. He told this writer a few days ago, "I feel like I still could go out there and do a good job if I could play every day. But I can't get going when I'm in the lineup for two or three days and on the bench for a couple."

"People have been saying I was through for seven years (since the Athletics traded him to the Red Sox) and one of the biggest kicks I have had in baseball was batting .345 at Boston in 1933."

The Foxx deal filled in a lull in the major leagues while clubs were traveling for another round of intersectional play starting today with the American league's western clubs invading the east and the eastern clubs of the National league moving west.

Results Fights Monday Night

By the Associated Press
NEW YORK—Charles (Lulu) Constantino, 128½, New York, outpointed Guillermo Punetos, 132½, Colombia, South America (8).

SAN JOSE, Calif.—Henry Armstrong, 148, St. Louis, won by technical knockout over Johnny Taylor, 147, Oakland, (4).

CHICAGO—Joe Maxim, 179, Cleveland, knocked out Charlie Roth, 191, Detroit (4).

BALTIMORE—Lou Transparenti, 123, Baltimore, outpointed Pedro Hernandez, 126, New York (10).

Turnesa And Snead To 'Hale America'

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
CHICAGO, June 2—(P)—Corporal Jim Turnesa and Sam Snead so thoroughly captured the fancy of golf followers in the P. G. A. that the Hale America committee has asked the government for assurance they will be available for the war time National Open.

The committee feels the appearance of Snead, the P. G. A. champion, and Turnesa, the surprising shotmaker he beat for the title, would bolster proceeds, which go to navy relief and United Service organizations.

Almost Sure
Tom McMahon, president of the Chicago District Golf Association sponsoring the Hale America with the USGA and PGA June 18-21, believes both men will compete.

"Fort Dix, N. J., officials virtually assured us Corporal Turnesa would be given leave," McMahon said today. "And the navy seems willing to give Snead permission to play."

Snead was in Washington today preparing for his induction into the navy's physical training program.

The two players are in a group which automatically qualifies without entering a dozen 54-hole sectional eliminations this week-end to select a field of more than 100 for the four rounds of medal play at Ridgemoor Country club. Included in this set of 22 golfers are Byron Nelson and Ben Hogan, both highly favored to win the Hale America title.

SO THEY SAY SHORTS—
This also is a war of microscopes, drafting rooms and test tubes.—Dr. C. S. Marsh, vice president of American Council on Education, urging draft deferment for science students.

A certain proportion of people will not work unless they have to and that's what plays mischief with federal relief.—Elmer T. Peterson, Oklahoma writer.

Unexpected Happens To Jimmy Foxx

Red Sox Trade Him To Chicago Cubs; But Isn't Worried

BY BILL KING

BOSTON, June 2—(P)—The faintest shrug of the shoulders was the only reaction Jimmy Foxx, one of baseball's greatest moderns, exhibited when he experienced the most surprising shock in his 18 major league seasons—his sale to the Chicago Cubs by the Boston Red Sox after seven other clubs had waived him out of the American League.

An Interesting Experience
"Well, it should be a very interesting experience," Foxx said when informed of his sale by Dom DiMaggio, his roommate and admiring friend, on his arrival here from Philadelphia last night.

"Chicago is a great city and I'll like playing for my old friend Jimmy Wilson."

"I really don't know much about the National League, for I never thought I ever would be in it. In fact being traded anywhere was a matter that never occurred to me."

The veteran first baseman was so positive about his status as a Red Soxer that he brought his 12-year-old son, James Emory, back with him for a brief visit.

"Now we'll have to turn right around and head for Chicago, sonny," the father told his namesake and oldest offspring.

We'll Like Chicago—Dad
"I guess we'll like Chicago, Dad," replied Junior.

Foxx, now sidelined by a fractured rib, his reward for his most recent display of team spirit—serving as a batting practice pitcher in the Yankee stadium last week, has assured his new bosses that he will report in Chicago tomorrow and will be ready to perform for them early next week.

During their phone conversation, Foxx was warned that he was coming into a curve ball league. "Don't worry about that," he replied. "It won't bother me."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
CHURCHES

"God the Only Cause and Creator" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday June 7, 1942.

Golden Text: Acts 4:21. Lord, thou art God, which hast made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is.

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord; and shall glorify thy name. For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art God alone" (Ps. 86:9, 10).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The Scriptures imply that God is All-in-all. The Scriptures also declare that God is Spirit, God is individual, incorporeal. He is divine Principle, Love, the universal cause, the only creator, and there is no other self-existence. He fills all space, and it is impossible to conceive of such omnipresence and individuality except as infinite Spirit or Mind. Hence all is Spirit and spiritual" (p-331).

BURLINGTON, Conn. — "Memakidsenup," a sign on a cottage at Lake Garda, attracts little attention, because in Connecticut such Indian names as Pocotopaug, Uaugumboag, and Wonons Kopomuc are common. However, it takes a keen eye to translate the cottage sign because it means "Me, ma, kids and pup."
